Interviewer:	In response to that, might we expect an escalation on your part?
Marwan Barghouti:	Undoubtedly, our struggling people, standing up against a failing Israeli aggression, which has not been capable of providing security to Israelis
MB:	for a year, will oppose with all its courage and its strength, while maintaining national unity, (and will react) to these crimes.
MB:	Without a doubt, the reaction to the martyrdom of the leaders and fighters, will not be late in coming.

MB:	The right of the Palestinian people, all its wings, without exception, to react to the cowardly assassination policy,
MB:	which was carried out and which still continues against Palestinian operatives and commanders of all ranks.
MB:	The Palestinian people is defending itself, and will continue to do so. At the same time, the rulers in Tel Aviv should know that our people will not permit

MB:	In my opinion, the Fatah movement has not changed its strategy. This is a clear strategy based primarily on continuation of the struggle
MB:	against the Israeli occupation, which bears full responsibility for the Zionist terror policy going on against our people,
MB:	in many and varied unending ways.

MB:	First allow me to express our deep sorrow over the martyrdom of the heroic commander, Mohanad Abu Halawah,
MB:	and his comrades, Fawzi and Amar. So far not all the details of the incident have been clarified, but our people is bidding farewell to a leader and founder of the al-Aqsa Martyrs Brigades,
MB:	one of the knights of Force 17 and the Fatah movement, one of the outstanding fighters who carried out acts of bravery that shook

MB:	the Israeli army and the Israeli settlers. This is a cowardly, treacherous action, to which will react
MB:	the al-Aqsa Martyrs Brigades, who are loyal to the blood of our people.

MB:	We say that our message is clear: If your tanks are able to lay siege to the Chairman, Yassir Arafat,
MB:	and to carry out aggression against Chairman Yassir Arafat, who stands firm and fights, who is a role model, a leader and a fighter, from whom our people draw
MB:	the strength, the resilience, the power and the will, if your tanks were able to break through to the Muqata and the office of Chairman Arafat, then our heroes
MB:	have succeeded in breaking through to the Israeli cities, and to strike blow after blow. We say again: You will not feel secure, anywhere, as long as our people
MB:	does not enjoy freedom, [the right of] return, and independence.
MB:	If your tanks penetrate the streets of our cities, then our heroes will penetrate the streets of your cities, and you will not enjoy peace and security,
MB:	unless our people enjoys freedom, [the right of] return, and independence.
